RUSSIANS REPORTED TO BE WITHDRAWING

Indications Are That No Serious Attempt Will Be Made to Hold Mukden---Japanese Are Pressing Attack.

London, Sept. 30.—Telegraphing from New Chwang Sept. 29, the Daily Mail's correspondent says:

The main force of the Russian army has retired to the north of Mukden. Strong bodies of troops have been thrown out to defend both flanks and the southern approaches to the city have been carefully entrenched. The indications are that no serious attempt will be made to hold Mukden."

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30—2:30 a. m.—The absence of Emperor Nicholas, who has gone to Odessa to welcome his cousin, Grand Duke Alexis, upon his return from the front, has been experienced heretofore.

Communication with Mukden has been practically suspended and St. Petersburg is therefore suffering another period of anxiety and suspense, just when the intimation had been given that important developments were to be expected in connection with the business now between the armies of General Kuropatkin and Field Marshal Oyama.

Port Arthur is again pushed into the background and the only news from that place comes by way of Vladivostok. It contains, however, the hopeful information that the garrison is confident of being able to hold out until the first of the year.

It was reported last night that Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch, commander-in-chief of the Muscovite armies, has been made out, but the statement cannot be confirmed. The report was coupled with the arrival of the news that Viceroy Alexieff will return to St. Petersburg and become chairman of the council of state. The report seems credited in the best informed circles, although it is admitted that the viceroy will probably return to Grand Duke Nicholas if sent to the front.

Kuropatkin and Oyama are reported to be in communication with the view to the exchange of prisoners.

Kuropatkin has issued a proclamation to the troops, in which he says:

"The enemy has suffered heavy losses in Manchuria and who has started command by overtaken reasons during his three days' stay at the resort hotel.

While London is her present address, she says she was born in the Ionian Isles, and is "really a Greek."

"My home was the scene of the story 'Lady Audley's Secret,'" says the countess proudly.

People in Manitou say there is no doubt of the refugee's respectable circumstances, and, as proof of her identity she has five trunks with her, and she wears a magnificent wardrobe.

The countess's social actions in complaining of her treatment in the mountains have attracted considerable attention in Manitou, and it is stated that in Ogden, Utah, she was held in the authorities pending an investigation into her case.

The people of this country treat me slightly discourteously," she said last night to a Gazette reporter. "I am not allowed to eat my meals without being made the target of curious eyes. I am not even allowed to write my letters in peace and I am kept up late at night by people who want to talk with me.

She claims that her baggage is being held up in Canada, although she says she has paid a very large sum for its passage.

She spoke French last night, and talked interestingly of her travels, stating that she has been to the Holy Land three times and has recently come from a visit to Mexico and the western coast of this country. She is now en route to the World's fair at St. Louis.

The countess gives evidences of wealth and social position. She speaks fluently French, Spanish, Italian and Greek, as well as her native tongue.

AN INSPECTION OF THE HENRY ADNEY PROPERTY.

Special to the Gazette.

LEE SUPERINTENDENT OF FOURTH DIVISION

CRUISER BALTIMORE GOING TO PORT SAID.

Messina, Sicily, Sept. 29.—The U. S. cruiser Baltimore passed here today, going south.

The Baltimore is bound from Genoa to Port Said.

STOESSEL SAYS HE WILL NEVER YIELD

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—Even if the instructions were sent to him to capitulate, he would follow the example of Nebogatoff, who promptly turned his ships and to the signal telling him to cease fighting.

Such is the positive declaration of the third and irrevocable decision of General Stoessel to surrender Port Arthur. He has determined to fight to the very end and to ask no quarter and not even offer an order from the czar to plead.

It is fully recognized that the situation at Port Arthur is rapidly becoming desperate with the water supply in danger and the supplies of ammunition and food running short. Admiral Togo's warships are also making the position tighter than ever and are sending all sorts to Port Dalny for investigation.

The Russ makes an interesting estimate of Japan's fighting strength from which it concludes that the Japanese have a reserve of 150,000 men upon which to draw to fill up battalions decimated in the field. It says the critics have been all wrong deceived both by the difference in the Japanese army as it went out on a peace footing and by the character of the work being performed in response to a call for military service. Russia, it says, must reckon upon an effective foe over 1,000,000 strong when organizing forces to meet the Japanese in the spring.

Capture of Dr. Fase.

News received here from Mukden says that the Japanese have captured Dr. Fase and eight other persons. This is not actually confirmed but the general staff thinks it is likely to be correct.

Count Tolstoy's son, Leo, in an article in the Novoe Vremya, takes a pessimistic view of the situation. He has just returned from seeing Stoessel, who is departing for the front, and writes of the touching scenes he witnessed at Tamboff at the reserves left for the far east. Nevertheless, he says the peasants are all united in agreeing that the war must be fought out until Japan is subdued. He adds:

"It is a hard time for Russia, but it is the period of her regeneration. The war is the fair that is a great war, such as Russia has not seen since the days of Peter the Great—a war for the protection of the eastern shores of the European Arctic continent, just as in the days of Peter it was for the western shores. Just as in the war with the Swedes we suffered at Narva, but we conquered at Poltava, so the present setbacks redouble our energies."

DISEASE IS RIFE IN JAPANESE ARMY

There continues a dearth of news from the armies in the far east.

Reports from Russian sources tell of terrible ravages by disease in the Japanese army. The Liao river is said to have been dammed above Liaoyang in order that the flooded country may protect the left flank of the Japanese army threatening Mukden.

In St. Petersburg it seems to be the impression that General Kuropatkin will not make a stubborn fight for the possession of Mukden.

Vladivostok has heard that the Port Arthur garrison is confident of being able to hold out at least three months longer.

Another stroke of ill-fortune has befallen the Russian navy. It was developed to be ready above this time for service, but a mishap to the Oleg, Russian flagship in the Pacific squadron, will probably detain her at Creusot for six weeks.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF ST. ANDREW BROTHERHOOD.

The Countess Arabella Loughman, wife of one of the Pembroke-Herberts the celebrated English family.

A grandniece of the Duchess de Fleury.

Related through her grandmother to the celebrated Cardinal de Fleury.

Great-granddaughter of the Marchioness de Cyr.

This is the family claim advanced by a woman who is at the Kenois house in Manitou and who has created comment by eccentric actions during her three days' stay at the resort hotel.

While London is her present address, she says she was born in the Ionian Isles, and is "really a Greek."

"My home was the scene of the story 'Lady Audley's Secret,'" says the countess proudly.

People in Manitou say there is no doubt of the refugee's respectable circumstances, and, as proof of her identity she has five trunks with her, and she wears a magnificent wardrobe.

STRIP OF KANSAS MAY BE ANNEXED TO COLORADO

Effort at a Solution of the Kansas-Colorado Water Suit---Western Kansas in Favor of the Plan.

Pueblo, Sept. 29.—An effort at a solution of the Kansas-Colorado water suit is in progress and if the efforts of those most interested in the case are successful, a strip of the western portion of Kansas, about 20 miles wide, will be annexed to the state of Colorado, and the litigation now before the supreme court at Washington will be thrown out.

Although along this line has already started and prominent politicians in both Kansas and Colorado are exerting every effort to get the scheme put through the legislature of both states whereby the western portion of Kansas can be taken into Colorado. This it is thought by those who have given the irrigation question much study, will solve the difficulty and make peace be permanent to a great extent.

The strip of country in western Kansas which it is proposed to annex to Colorado is that most affected by the water suit. It is the arid region of the state and the irrigation problem is of the greatest importance to the residents. Dean of Lamar City practically no water is taken from the Arkansas river for irrigating purposes and the suit against Colorado was brought for the purpose of securing a sufficient amount of water in that portion of the state coming westward from Dodge City to the Colorado state line.

L. F. Worden of Syracuse, Kan., and C. H. Kendrick of Garden City, Kan., a candidate for representative from that county are in Pueblo on the interest of the plan.

"We have many prominent politicians and other influential citizens over both states working for the success of this plan," said Mr. Worden. "It would settle the water question in western Kansas forever and the suit now in the courts would be dropped. In three months from now the matter ought to be ripe enough for settlement."

Both Mr. Worden and Mr. Kendrick appeared before the government commission when it was in session here, and are thoroughly familiar with the situation. They say they are surprised at the favorable sentiment of western Kansas.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 29.—Judge E. S. Ashbaugh, attorney for Kansas in the case pronounces the story of the cession of a part of Kansas to Colorado as simply absurd and ridiculous. He states the case does not concern 100 miles in Kansas alone but 20 miles and he is fighting for the entire Arkansas river valley.

REPORT IS RIDICULED.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 29.—Kansas politicians ridicule the report sent out from Pueblo that a portion of Western Kansas is likely to be added to Colorado. None of the state officers are in the city tonight but the attorneys in the attorney general's office say the story is purely of Colorado origin and that if the proposed session were to be made it would not only matters in the least, as regards the irrigation case, as the entire Arkansas valley must be considered in the settlement.

THE DEATH OF SENATOR HOAR

End Came About Half Past One This Morning.

WAS IN STATE OF COMA

SENATOR HAD BEEN IN AN UNCONSCIOUS CONDITION SINCE EARLY ON TUESDAY.—VITALITY SURPRISED PHYSICIANS.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 30.—George Frisbie Hoar, senior United States senator from Massachusetts, died at his home in this city at 1:35 o'clock this (Friday) morning. The end followed a period of unconsciousness that had continued since early Tuesday and came so gently that only the attending physicians were aware of the exact moment of dissolution.

The attending physicians declared of the senator's life six weeks ago but such was the vitality exhibited by their distinguished patient that even they were surprised and the public was at times led to cherish faith in an ultimate recovery.

On Sunday last, however, all hope was abandoned after a 24 hours effort to administer medicine and nourishment. Brief lucid intervals were followed by longer durations of unconsciousness until Tuesday morning when the venerable statesman sank into a stupor of coma from which all efforts to rouse him proved futile.

BIG MAJORITY FOR PEABODY

VICTOR IS PREPARING TO CAST A RECORD-BREAKING VOTE ON THE SIDE OF LAW AND ORDER.

Special to the Gazette.

Victor, Sept. 29.—Victor is now assuring Governor Peabody a vast majority in this end of the camp. They are satisfied that after the votes are counted returns from this end of the district will make the Democratic forces assemble a summer resort in the middle of winter.

Last Tuesday a new organization was formed, known as the Teller County Miners Peabody Law and Order league which immediately went to work with vigor. Petitions were left in the different business houses for the signatures of those who wished to be counted with the association. Today the petitions were collected and after a count by the secretary it was found that over 600 men had placed their signatures to the call above which is independence over the ballot the organization with pride and coming from the town of Goldfield.

The Republican clubs of Victor, Goldfield and Independence have combined in a rally of nearly 1,000 men, with the Mine Owners association, and will be a sufficient number of voters for one of the greatest majorities ever recorded in the history of the Cripple Creek district.

FIGHT FOR POSSESSION

Big Legal Battle to Be Waged OVER TELLURIDE MILL

NEW YORK CREDITORS APPEAL TO JUDGE HALLETT, WHO PUT FEDERAL AUTHORITIES IN CHARGE.

All signs now point to a big legal fight for possession of the Telluride mill at Colorado City.

Active steps in this direction were taken yesterday, when representatives of the New York creditors of the General Metals company appealed to the United States court in Denver to pass upon their rights. During the day the attorneys for local creditors were served with papers to appear before Judge Hallett and show cause why the administration of the company's affairs should not be vested in Assignee Boelter, appointed by Judge Holt of New York.

The order of Judge Hallett is returnable Saturday, but arguments in the matter may be delayed until a later date.

Meanwhile the mill property is in the possession of the federal officers, who are acting under the order issued by Judge Hallett last week and which was to the effect that they should take possession of all ores at the mill. The ores in the precipitating tanks are being run through and converted into bullion, ore that was not in process of treatment at the time the officers took possession is not being touched, but simply held pending a settlement of the controversy.

M. E. WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

THE 23RD ANNUAL MEETING HAS BEGUN WEEK'S SESSIONS IN DENVER WITH 500 DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE.

Denver, Sept. 29.—The 23rd annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church opened here today and its sessions will continue for a week. There are nearly 500 delegates in attendance. Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk of New York, president of the society, made an address congratulating the members on the results of the year's work. The annual report of Mrs. George H. Thompson of Cincinnati, the treasurer, showed the financial condition of the society to be excellent.

Mrs. F. C. Gibson of Chattanooga, Tenn., general secretary of literature in her report spoke highly on the lack of results that have followed the work in many departments of the society. The appointment of a conference secretary on literature and the holding of literary exhibits were suggested.

New York, Sept. 29.—Indicative of an effort on the part of Judge Parker to unite both factions and bring together individuals whose personal differences might interfere with harmonious work for the national ticket, his callers during the three days of his visit to New York have included representatives of every wing of the Democratic party. In this connection conspicuous among those who visited the candidate today were Dr. John H. Gardner, who has been the host of W. J. Bryan whenever he came to New York, and Alexander C. Troop, of New Haven, who served as chairman of the Connecticut state committee and conducted an enthusiastic campaign for Bryan four years ago.

The incident that has created the most notable comment was the meeting between Senators Gorman and Turner, of Maryland, accompanied by an announcement from their close political associates that whatever differences heretofore existed between these Maryland leaders have been dissipated, at least so far as the present campaign is concerned.

Former Representative Ben. T. Cable, of Illinois, who called on the judge, is another whose meeting is said to mean a unit of effort from opposing organizations of the Illinois Democracy.

Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, made an appointment to see Judge Parker tomorrow morning. Few callers were admitted to Judge Parker's apartments tonight.

Cuticura Saved Her Life, So Mother Says.

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cooling agents and all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good. In fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table for I could not hold her. She would kick and struggle, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no trace of the disease left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and are now suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial." MRS. G. A. CONRAD, Lisbon, N. H., Feb. 7, 1904.

IS THE TARIFF A ROBBERY?

THE DEMOCRATIC platform says: "We denounce protectionism as a robbery." This is certainly startling if true. But who has been robbed?

Not the farmer, who is getting a billion dollars more a year for his products than under free trade; whose animals are worth a billion dollars more than under free trade; who has paid off his mortgages, who has improved his farms, who has increased his stock and implements, and who has money to burn instead of corn, as was the case under free trade.

No, the farmer has not been robbed, and the farmers and their families constitute 40 per cent. of all our people.

Not the wage earners in manufacturing industries, who have saved so well and added a billion dollars to their savings since 1897, who have increased their insurance, who have paid for their homes, who have worked less hours and earned more money than ever before. No, the wage earner has not been robbed.

Not the railroad employes, who are getting a quarter of a billion dollars more wages a year now than under free trade.

Not the railroad owners, who are getting twice the dividends and whose stock is worth about double what it was under free trade.

Not the professional man, who is earning twice as much, and getting it. He did not get it even though he earned it under free trade.

Not the wives and daughters, who live well and dress well when the husbands and fathers are fully employed at high wages.

Not the boys, who are getting a good education.

Not the general public laborers, who are working less hours and getting higher wages than ever before.

Not the old soldiers, nor the present army, nor the men who man the ships.

No, there is no one being robbed except the pawnbroker and the Democrats who want a job. There is where the robbery comes in, and there is where it hurts. The would-be cabinet officers and heads of departments, the would-be postmasters and clerks, the would-be ambassadors and ministers and consuls, the would-be office holders of any and every description, he thinks he is being robbed, and yet he can make more money in his business and get more wages for his work than he could under free trade. He is robbed, not of work and income, but of a position he cannot be trusted to fill. That is all the robbery there is to protection.

THAT BOGUS LETTER.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST confesses, with a degree of shamefacedness, that it is the author of the bogus Roosevelt letter. "It was such a letter as President Roosevelt might have written," it says. The practice of attributing to our public officials into the mouths of our chief executives is in bad taste to say the least, for it opens the way to a great deal of mischief-making.

In this particular instance the fact that the letter was bogus was omitted either by accident or design when it started upon its course in Wisconsin. It was gross carelessness in thus getting up a man of straw in order to demolish him. But those socialistic editors were evidently looking for some such excuse for they replied to the lesson produced in vindictive fashion, and with all the radical views of their new found faith.

In the event it is a campaign "boomerang" which, instead of injuring President Roosevelt, will unquestionably make him stronger throughout the country.

STOP-OVERS IN COLORADO.

THE Gazette [illegible] upon the right track in [illegible] more favorable consideration at the hands of transcontinental railways. There [illegible] in Colorado on every [illegible] and [illegible] this way a vast number of visitors en route to California or many Pacific points would have an opportunity to see the scenery of this famous Rocky Mountain region. It would serve as a very agreeable diversion to the tourist after the plains to the east and to the west of Colorado.

This is especially important in view of the fact that many visitors to the Portland exposition next year will undoubtedly be glad to spend a few days or weeks in the Rocky Mountain country if they are given the opportunity.

THE CASE OF SECRETARY GUERNEY.

THE [illegible] GAZETTE has displayed a [illegible] of [illegible] in N Y [illegible] the [illegible] y of the Hague [illegible] who [illegible] to [illegible] of the fact [illegible] he was retained the [illegible] a [illegible] ort-

[illegible] the close of the [illegible] of the [illegible] and that [illegible] he is [illegible] and [illegible] That is the [illegible]

[illegible] is the question of Secretary." This is where the merchants and the News disagree because nine-tenths of the business men of Colorado are going to vote for the governor because they believe that his re-election spells prosperity and contentment for this state.

The Hon. Chas. S. Thomas was among the callers upon Judge Parker in New York yesterday. No doubt he called to assure the candidate that the campaign to secure the five electoral votes of Colorado for the Democracy, or else "bankrupt the state," was progressing favorably.

Yesterday brought one of those fine, soft, gentle rains which are good for man and good for the soil. It sort of clears the atmosphere of dust, brings color to the cheek, rests the nerves, takes the kinks out of the joints, and is a very good sedative for that tired feeling.

Russia will put another 300,000 men in the field. Japan is enlisting another 100,000. It will soon be time for the nations of the world to step in and stop the ruinous struggle.

It does seem as if Mount Vesuvius might be a trifle quieter now after belching forth rocks many of which weighed a ton.

Port Arthur has been falling for some months, but it does not seem possible that it can stand the strain much longer.

Ever hear of a Democrat asking for support on account of his party's record?

REPUDIATES HERRICK.

The "Evening Post" cannot advise anybody to vote for D. Cady Herrick. His ability we do not question. On the bench, so far as we know, he has been an impartial judge. But are we to attack Odellism with a candidate adept in all the disreputable arts of Democratic politics in Albany county? Are we to preach judicial propriety while nominating a man who has been a local party boss, though a judge? It will be said that Herrick was a useful [illegible] for Mr. Cleveland. So was the notorious Parkin, of Baltimore, but that does not fit him to be governor. That Herrick has long been Hill's enemy will be brought forward as a conclusive argument, but that alone is not enough. No; earnestly desiring as it does the success of the Democratic national ticket, the "Evening Post" has for [illegible] and consideration to sustain, and will not support Herrick for governor. In passing by Jerome and Shepard to nominate him, the Democratic convention deliberately threw away its great opportunity.—New York Evening Post.

Wit and Wisdom

WOULD STOP RUNAWAY HORSES.

Once, when Daniel Webster was riding along a New England road in a stage coach, as the story runs, he was shocked by the jolting and poked his head out of the window to yell at the driver.

"Hey, can't you drive a little slower?"

"No," responded the coachman, "the horses are running away, sir."

"Run 'em into a fence corner," advised Daniel.

"Can't, sir," said the driver reluctantly and despairingly. "[illegible] his lines."

"Well, run them into debt, then," thundered Daniel. "That'll stop anything!"—Detroit News.

EXTRA EXERCISE.

Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, went fishing down the Potomac with a friend not long ago. A storm [illegible] so [illegible] the boat at the place where the [illegible] to try their luck. The fish did not bite, so after an hour or two the senator and his friend returned, the latter rowing. He noticed that the boat seemed to be very sluggish in responding to the oars, but had no idea of the reason until the landing was reached. Then the man from whom they rented the boat said: "Judge, you don't look drunk and you haven't the smell of liquor on you, but this is the first time I ever saw two sober men pull a boat for three miles with the anchor dragging." "I paid for the boat, didn't I?" replied the senator testily, not caring to admit his forgetfulness. "Well, then, it is none of your business if we wanted to get a little extra exercise."—Omaha Bee.

ONE ON THE KING.

"King Frederick VI. was visiting a certain Danish school. The pupils were intelligent and alert. He put a number of questions to them.

"'What,' he said finally, 'are the names of Denmark's greatest kings?'

"Two well read boys answered in chorus:

"'Canute, Waldemar and Christian IV.'

"Then the schoolmaster crept over a boy and whispered something, whereupon the lad rose and raised his hand.

"'Well,' said the king, 'do you know another?'

"'Yes, Frederick VI.,' the boy answered.

"The king smiled. 'What great deed did he perform?' he said.

"The boy was silent. He thought hard. Finally he stammered:

"'I don't know.'

"'Well, my child, be comforted,' said the king. 'I don't know, either.'"—Omaha Bee.

ONE OF LINCOLN'S STORIES.

This story of Lincoln seems to be a new one. It was related at an old settlers meeting at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., by [illegible] late Senator James Harlan of Iowa, who served as secretary of the interior under Mr. Lincoln, and whose daughter Mary is the wife of Robert Lincoln, ex-secretary of war and now a leading lawyer and capitalist of Chicago.

Some politicians had called on President Lincoln to urge the appointment of some of their friends to positions in a certain department. By way of refusal the president told the following story:

"Gentlemen, the conditions in that department put me in mind of the Nile that a prospector and myself tried to ascend the two daughters of a patriarch whose living near our homes. [illegible] a lot of boats.

MARSHALL IS FOUND GUILTY

After Long Deliberation Jury Returns Verdict.

YOUTH AWAITS SENTENCE

THE MAXIMUM PENALTY IN SUCH CASES IS A FINE OF $2,000, OR A YEAR IN THE COUNTY JAIL, OR BOTH.

Two twelve men in the district court placed the fate of Samuel Marshall, jr., on Wednesday afternoon, and their verdict shortly after noon was rendered yesterday morning. Marshall was convicted that the defendant was guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses from Mrs. Mary Burton.

This verdict carries with it as the extreme penalty a fine of $2,000 and one year in the county jail or both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, but the jury in rendering its verdict did not recommend any punishment. It is therefore left entirely with the court as to what the sentence shall be. Marshall will be given a chance to plead for himself.

Only Did His Duty as He Saw It.

It seem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. says C. Wiley Park, the well-known merchant and postmaster of Wiley, Ky. I have been selling it for three or four years and it gives complete satisfaction. My self as my customers tell me they would not be without it. For children, many often, in my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure any case of cholera. For sale by all leading druggists.

WOMAN MUST GO TO JAIL

Sentenced for Making False Pretenses.

TOLD HARD-LUCK STORY

MAY JESSUP TOLD LANDLADY THAT SHE EXPECTED TO GET MONEY FROM HOME, AND THEY GOT INTO TROUBLE.

Judge Thomas H. Gabbert yesterday sentenced Mrs. Jessup to a term of [illegible] in the county jail on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Mrs. Jessup rented the furnished house of Mrs. Mary Burton, and after occupying it for a month or more left the city, owing her landlady $25 for rent. She made several false statements and told a hard story of her misfortunes. Mrs. Burton says that Mrs. Jessup told her that she expected money from home, but when she left the house she was penniless.

Mrs. Jessup has been in the city about two months and has been employed at the Antlers hotel.

KATT WOMAN NOT GUILTY SAYS JURY

LEADER OF LOCAL GANG CUT OF CAROUSAL AT COLORADO CITY, AND EVIDENCE SEEMED LACKING.

In the county court late yesterday afternoon the case of the People vs. Minnie Hamilton, charged with keeping a house of ill fame, was tried and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Miss Katt was arrested with the others of a number of girls and society men in the vicinity of 25th from a colored woman, named Hamilton, in Colorado City a few days ago. She pleaded not guilty and was released on $50 bond. She was then arrested and her case was tried.

Miss Katt, who is well known in Colorado City, and called the leader of the party. The girls apparently took the matter lightly and enjoyed the affair after a short deliberation.

CYANIDE PLANTS ARE PROVING SUCCESSFUL

Mine Owners in Cripple Creek Are Beginning to Believe That Problem of Low Grade Ores Has Been Solved.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Sept. 29.—The many new cyanide plants that are in operation in the district in the past year and those that are now under construction are being carefully watched by mine owners. It will be remembered that very few of the old plants operated here knew much about the economy of labor for crushing and water in the ultimate connection with the prices in the market.

Among the cyanide plants which are now operating successfully is that of the Stone Falls company in Poverty gulch. The company is reducing ore in the Florence mill and is making a profit. The ore is from the Stone Falls property on Bull hill. The company which recently built a small plant with a view to the reduction of its own ores has proved the success of the process. Charles Pearce, an engineer who has had much to do with the development of the Stone Falls property, is in charge of the mill. The company has been operating for about a year and has proved the success of the process. Charles Pearce, an engineer who has had much to do with the development of the Stone Falls property, is in charge of the mill. The company has been operating for about a year and has proved the success of the process.

Other plants of the same nature have been erected on the Isabella property in the Arequa district, on the Work property near Arequa gulch, in the Gillett section, in Poverty gulch and elsewhere. Some of these plants are now being enlarged and improved. Others are to be erected in the immediate neighborhood of the Stone Falls mill. The Work property is said to be a very promising one. The Isabella and Work properties are controlled by Denver and Colorado Springs people who have been developing them for a year or more. The Work property is said to be a very promising one.
